OUR VISION
St. Augustine Parish is a worshipping community that enthusiastically manifests faith through action, with open arms for all of God’s children.

OUR MISSION
We live God’s Word and continue His Work.
THE LORD OF LIFE

At this bountiful time of year, our Sunday readings teem with life and abundance. Both the first reading, from the book of Wisdom, and the Gospel passage from Mark assure us that God did not make death or even will us to be ill. Illness and death entered the world through the presence of evil, the Wisdom author tells us. Mark’s stories of Jesus healing a hemorrhaging woman and resuscitating a dead little girl make it clear that Jesus is from God. As the Son of God he does not will that anyone suffer illness or death. In the face of such power, the second reading, from Paul’s Second Letter to the Corinthians, provides a stark contrast. Jesus, who could raise the dead to new life, “though he was rich, for your sake he became poor” (2 Corinthians 8:9). Our gift of new life from Christ demands our response in charity.

Sunday: Ez 2:2-5; Ps 123:1-4; 2 Cor 12:7-10; Mk 6:1-6a

TODAY’S READINGS

Psalm — I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me (Psalm 30).

Second Reading — Your abundance should supply the needs of the others (2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15).

Gospel — Your faith has saved you (Mark 5:21-43 [21-24, 35b-43]).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The premier poet of the English language, Geoffrey Chaucer, introduced one of his most beloved characters, the “Wife of Bath,” by this telling remark: “Husbands at church door she had five.” Four times widowed, she was setting off on a pilgrimage, notably without number five. The church door is a curious detail, pointing to the fourteenth-century wedding custom of marrying on the porch of the parish church. The goal was to give maximum publicity to the consent of the groom and bride, and so consent was moved from the bride’s home to a public venue. The priest would stand in the doorway and begin by sprinkling the couple with holy water. He needed to make sure they weren’t too closely related and give them some instruction. He would direct the groom to pay the bride’s family a dowry, and then announce the monetary amounts to the interested passersby. Only then would the guests enter the church for the wedding Mass, during which the bride and groom would hold lighted candles. The gradual move from home to church and the shift from the bride’s father to the priest’s authority helped to protect the freedom of brides who weren’t quite as confident as the Wife of Bath.

Dear Parishioners,

You may have noticed as you come in the church lot, the display banners announcing the 45th founding anniversary this year of St. Augustine Church. Celebration and activities will be spread throughout the next several months. Announcements are publicized through the parish website, parish bulletin, pulpit, posters, and social media on Facebook.

The Ways and Means Committee coordinated by Mila Braganza is well on its way in executing the different planned events through the following coordinators and teams:
- Dollar Raffle: Religious Education, Ed Ang
- Souvenir Program: Religious Education, Evelyn Pimentel
- Liturgy for the Feast Day of St. Augustine: Religious Education, Sr. Nona
- Black & White Charity Ball: Malou Cu
- Family Fun Day: All Organizations, Mediatrix Valera
- Our Story: 45 Years of Parish Life, A compilation of individual stories of parish life, Nerissa Broas

As a community, it is my hope and expectation that parishioners, organizations and ministries, work hand in hand in living our mission as an ecclesial family through programs and projects at hand. Having a communal spirit at heart allows us to appreciate life even more. Where God is, humans become selfless and giving of themselves unconditionally.

Sincerely, Fr. Rene
