We live God’s Word and continue His Work.
Third Sunday of Lent
February 28, 2016
Merciful and gracious is the Lord, slow to anger and abounding in kindness.
—Psalm 103:8

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD God appears to Moses and directs him to go and deliver the Israelites from Egypt (Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15) or Exodus 17:3-7.

PASTOR’S LETTER

Dear Parishioners,

I am thrilled to announce to you that this year brings some valuable changes in the life of our parish.

As a dynamic and spirited community, we are on our way to developing and enhancing stewardship as a “way of life” in St. Augustine Church. Stewardship has been the key to the vibrancy of this parish. Activities, programs, and campaigns throughout the years have been engineered by talented and skilled parishioners who saw a fine vision for the life of this wonderful parish.

Beginning in March, registered parishioners will be receiving monthly, a newsletter in their homes. Please take the time to read its contents and learn in depth about different facets of parish life in St. Augustine.

“Stewardship as a way of life” (gift of talent, time and treasure) will be a buzz word/phrase in the coming years.

The Sanctuary Renovation Project’s architectural plan has been re-designed to pastorally fit the needs of the people. As soon as it is finalized, Archbishop Cordileone will give his blessing and architect Greg Roja and contractors will begin tearing down the hanging “false” ceiling in the church. Masses will be held in the parish hall. Additional masses may be created temporarily to accommodate the parish’s needs for weekend masses.

I will continue to update you in the months to come.

Love,
Fr. Rene
