Our Vision
Saint Augustine Parish is a worshipping community that enthusiastically manifests faith through action, with open arms for all of God’s children.

Our Mission
We live God’s Word and continue His Work.
GIVING OF ONESELF

Scientists have recently begun to discuss the idea that the primary force behind all life in the universe is self-gift. This is how everything from galaxies to human babies are born and sustained.

If we read the opening of today’s passage from Isaiah correctly, we see that he anticipated twentieth-century scientists by over twenty five hundred years. Using the self-giving example of the rain and snow clouds that water the earth that then yields fruit, which in turn is given over to nourish creatures, Isaiah leads us to understand that the primary force behind all life is the word of God. The ultimate giving of that word, we believe, was Jesus Christ, who, in the greatest revelation of divine love, gave of himself on the cross.

To what degree are we in touch with that self-giving God in whose image we are made? To what extent do we really follow the self-giving example of Christ into whose death and resurrection we were baptized, whose ultimate self-gift we celebrate every week in the Eucharist? With God’s help, our lives can be like Isaiah’s rain and snow, and we will not return to heaven until we have done our part to make the earth fruitful.

First Reading — My word will achieve the end for which it was sent (Isaiah 55:10-11).
Psalm — The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest (Psalm 65).
Second Reading — We, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan within ourselves awaiting the redemption of our bodies (Romans 8:18-23).
Gospel — Some seed fell on rich soil and produced fruit (Matthew 13:1-23 [1-9]).

LIVE TODAY

Live today the way you will wish you had lived when you stand in judgment before God. —Anonymous

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

With the Reformation, some early Protestants, including the “Anabaptists,” rejected infant baptism in favor of “believer’s baptism.” Against Orthodox and Catholic practice, which favored baptism as soon as possible for a newborn, these movements desired that the candidate for baptism speak for him- or herself at a mature age, not through godparents as an infant. Today, it is clear that they were rejecting a very ancient practice (even as early as the second century) of baptizing children of all ages. Children came first in ancient baptismal ceremonies, and someone would speak for them. Gregory of Nazianzen wanted to delay the baptism of children to three years of age, since at that age they could retain at least some impression of the liturgy. He made an exception for the very ill, who were to be baptized ahead of the annual Easter baptism. That means that infants and children were normally baptized together with adults, and that everyone received confirmation and the Eucharist.

The tone of the early bishops’ writings is generous and compassionate, and seeks to build up the eucharistic assembly by widely celebrating the gift of the Holy Spirit. If a priest celebrated baptism, then the gift of the Spirit was postponed for the bishop, but with no regard for the person’s age. So, until the fifth century, confirmation was for infants, too.

Back-to-school shopping spree is an annual St. Vincent de Paul program. As a conference, we give a gift card to each family with school-aged children and accompany them shopping at Target. This year, to give more opportunities for each child to get all his/her needs, we are asking the parishioners of St. Augustine for help. The St. Vincent de Paul, St. Augustine Conference is having a back-to-school supplies drive on the weekend of July 19 and 20 after all the Masses. All supplies collected will be given to families in need within our community. We are looking for the following items: backpacks, notebooks (spiral and composition), #2 pencils, crayons, markers, colored pencils, pens, highlighters, erasers, binder paper, binders, rulers, glue (stick and liquid), white socks (for ages 8-12), and gift cards from Target or monetary donation. If you know of families who would benefit from this program, have any questions, or would like to volunteer, please call 650-273-7088. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Next Sunday’s second collection is for the Parish Landscaping.
