OUR VISION

St. Augustine Parish is a worshipping community that enthusiastically manifests faith through action, with open arms for all of God’s children.

OUR MISSION

We live God’s Word and continue His Work.
He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross, so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness.
— 1 Peter 2:24a

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Shepherds and sheep were so much a part of life for Jesus and those from Galilee. Galilee was, after all, largely a rural area and raising sheep and shepherding was an intricate part of their lives. That is why the image of a shepherd with his sheep was so often used during biblical times. It was a connection with which people could identify.

It is equally important for us today to understand this important cultural connection for them. Shepherding was all about feeding the lambs and the sheep (recall that Jesus tells Peter “Feed my sheep.”), bringing them to good pasture lands and water (“The Lord is my shepherd...He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside quiet waters; he restores my soul.”); going after lost lambs (“Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?”); and protects the sheep in the field and the fold (“The watchman opens the gate, and the sheep listen to his voice.”).

Our Gospel reading today comes from St. John 10:1-10. In St. John 10:11, the next verse, Christ declares “I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep.” As Catholics and Christians, we, too, are called to be Good Shepherd to all those with whom we come in contact. It may be from another culture than ours, but we should understand full well the implications of that.

— Catholic Stewardship Council

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — All peoples called by God will receive the gift of the Spirit if they repent and are baptized (Acts 2:14a, 36-41).
Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).
Second Reading — Once we were like straying sheep; but now we have been returned to the shepherd, our guardian (1 Peter 2:20b-25).
Gospel — The shepherd leads the sheep out into pastures of abundant life (John 10:1-10).

A fundraiser towards the renovation of the church and the altar.

THANK YOU!

St. Augustine Parish needs you. We need members of the community to actively and aggressively support the renovation project to be completed before the year ends.

God rewards a good steward. We need your prayers, participation in ministry, and monetary aid. This is the time to ask, “What can I offer for St. Augustine Church?”
