Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 17, 2017
Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven.
—Sirach 28:2

Stewardship is not optional! “None of us lives as his own master and none of us dies as his own master,” says St. Paul. “While we live, we are responsible to the Lord, and when we die, we die as His servants.” Romans 14:7-9

Today's Readings
First Reading — Remember the commandments and hate not your neighbor (Sirach 27:30 — 28:9).
Psalm — The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion (Psalm 103).
Second Reading — Whether we live, or whether we die, we do so for the Lord (Romans 14:7-9).
Gospel — Forgive one another from your heart (Matthew 18:21-35).

Keeping our church clean is a simple way of practicing stewardship. It is tending to what we hold dear as a community and sharing in the responsibility.
Please put trash and chewed gum in the garbage container - NOT IN the PEWS.
NO FOOD ALLOWED IN THE CHURCH.
THANK YOU!

A STEWARDSHIP STORY
I have learned to share because I want to, not because I need to. There are no controls, no strings attached, and no guarantee when we give unconditionally. That doesn’t mean that in retrospect I haven’t questioned my decisions; it simply means that I’ve tried to look at it as a growth experience, always keeping in mind the life of Jesus Christ. I personally see stewardship as a nurturing process. It is, in a sense, an invitation to reassess our priorities. It is ongoing and often painful, but most of all it brings a personal sense of happiness and peace of mind as I continue my journey through life.
—Jim Hogan - Green Bay, Wisconsin

Practicing Stewardship. Examples of the works, services, and ministries of a good steward include the following: 1) Evangelization and witness to the Gospel; 2) Catechesis and faith formation; 3) Parent stewardship of the domestic church (your home) 4) Stewardship of simplicity of life 5) Stewardship for ecology of the globe; 6) Lay witness in the marketplace and institutions; 7) Financial accountability in personal and parochial affairs; 8) Stewardship of collegiality and collaboration in parish life and ministries; 9) Stewardship of social justice and the work for peace.
—US Conference of Catholic Bishops

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God gift’s and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”
The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

RCIA is a journey of faith and initiation into the Roman Catholic Church. It is an extended period of formation and conversion through prayer and reflection on the Gospels. RCIA is also a communal journey in which the church community ritually celebrates initiation at various points during the journey. The RCIA is not a program but a SACRAMENTAL PROCESS in which candidates are fully initiated into the Catholic faith in a warm and accepting setting.

RCIA is for those who:
- Have expressed an interest in becoming Catholic;
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has never received religious education, Confirmation, or First Holy Communion.

RCIA offers an opportunity to come together in a small group setting to learn more about our faith. The weekly sessions focus on the teachings and experiences of being a member of the Roman Catholic Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season.

For answers to your questions and/or to sign up for this year’s RCIA classes please call Deacon Nestor Fernandez at 415-672-5252, or by email at DeaconNestor@comcast.net. Classes are held on Sundays at 9:30 AM in Conference Room A on Sundays beginning October 1, 2017.
