YOUTH OFFICE

Open 2nd & 4th Sundays
9:30 am to 2:30 pm

OUR VISION

St. Augustine Parish is a worshipping community that enthusiastically manifests faith through action, with open arms for all of God’s children.

OUR MISSION

We live God's Word and continue His Work.
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
November 26, 2017
“I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink.”
— Matthew 25:35

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tells us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God’s blessing and inherit the kingdom.

TODAY’S READINGS
First Reading — I will rescue my scattered sheep (Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17).

Second Reading — As in Adam all die, so too in Christ all shall be brought to life (1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28).
Gospel — Whatever you did to the least ones, you did to me (Matthew 25:31-46).

PHILOSOPHY OF STEWARDSHIP
Stewardship is about relationship. First our relationship with God, from whom all blessings flow. In right relationship, we put God at the very center, every other relationship settles into its right place, including:

Our relationship with our time, talents and treasures. We don’t own our time, it’s given to us to use wisely as we walk on the earth. Most people find it easy to think of time in this way, but it’s harder to think of talents and treasures as things we don’t own, aren’t entitled to and have no right to hoard.

Our relationship to the earth. The earth is God’s, and produces an abundance of the essentials for our lives: Food, water, air, resources for keeping warm and building shelter. The earth belongs to our lives: Food, Stewardship involves thoughtful consumption of resources so all will have enough and the processes that sustain life will not be harmed.

Our relationship to others. Jesus commanded us to love God first, and then our neighbor as ourselves. In a world where greed, anger, hatred and selfishness abound, Stewardship calls us to embrace God’s love more fully, that we may embrace others.

Stewardship is a journey. Like all faith disciplines, Stewardship takes awareness, prayer and practice.

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God gift’s and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”
