Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 26, 2018

As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD.
— Joshua 24:15b

SAINT AUGUSTINE, Bishop of Hippo “Doctor of the Church” (continued from last week’s bulletin)

He is called the Doctor of Grace because of his miraculous transformation out of sin to the service of God’s creatures. He served the church in Africa for many years as bishop with genuine love. His mother, St. Monica, never stopped praying for him; a great model. Once spiritual love was incorporated into Augustine’s authentic lifestyle and daily habits, he said: “Love and do what you will.” Then and only then, this holy bishop really knew the difference between a love for life and a life for love. Augustine’s holy love for God’s poured itself out into pure love for God’s creatures. He quoted Scriptures by saying of others “you are gods”. He gives us the perfect prescription by showing us how to love God and creatures intuitively. He is also called the Doctor’s Doctor or Doctor of Doctors. When we are touched by grace, as the “Doctor of Grace”, we’ll know, as the bishop of Hippo came to know, God’s love in all of its infinite and rich dimensions.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Almighty and ever-faithful Lord, gratefully acknowledging Your mercy and humbly admitting our need, we pledge our trust in You and each other. Filled with desire, we respond to Your call for discipleship by shaping our lives in imitation of Christ. We profess that the call requires us to be stewards of Your gifts. As stewards, we receive Your gifts gratefully, cherish and tend them in a responsible manner, share them in practice and love with others, and return them with increase to the Lord. We pledge to our ongoing formation as stewards and our responsibility to call others to that same endeavor. Almighty and ever-faithful God, it is our fervent hope and prayer that You who have begun this good work in us will bring it to fulfillment in Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

“Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God gift’s and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor.”
