THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

“A Mystery is not something that we can’t understand. Rather, it is something that we can endlessly understand…”

God, within God’s own nature, is relationship. We believe in one God of three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Is it any surprise then that we, who are created in the image and likeness of God, are so hardwired for relationship? After birth, a baby who is given food and shelter but does not receive loving human interaction will fail to develop normally. From the beginning of our lives, our relationships are our greatest joy and also can cause us the deepest sorrow.

All relationships require celebration. In our world where so much revolves around transactions, we need time in relationships where we simply enjoy the other. We know, too, that all relationships require love, whether it is the relationship between spouses, parents and children, friends, and coworkers. Within the Trinity, love is dynamic and constantly outpouring. Relationships also demand truth, especially an authentic sharing of oneself with the other. From the very beginning of our lives within the womb we have experienced relationship – the relationship with God and the relationship with other humans. On this feast of the Holy Trinity let us rededicate ourselves to living out these relationships in joy, love and truth.
