Sixth Sunday of Easter
May 25, 2014

“I will ask the Father, and he will give you . . . the Spirit of truth.”
— John 14:16–17

THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT

Do you recognize the sacrament that is celebrated in today’s first reading from the Acts of the Apostles? When Peter and John imposed hands on those who had been baptized, they received the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of confirmation. The reading from the First Letter of Peter and the passage from John’s Gospel both consider the results of our baptism and confirmation. Peter reminds us it is likely that we will have to suffer for what we believe.

In today’s Gospel Jesus speaks clearly about the Holy Spirit, referring to a “Paraclete,” one who will stand with us to defend us. Poignantly, Jesus promises his disciples, and all of us, “I will not leave you orphans.” He has never left his followers orphaned. We have always had the Holy Spirit to guide us.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — The people of Samaria accepted the word of God preached by Philip; they received the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:5-8, 14-17).
Psalm — Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (Psalm 66)
Second Reading — Act with gentleness and reverence toward all, so that when you are maligned those who defame you will be the ones put to shame (1 Peter 3:15-18) or 1 Peter 4:13-16.
Gospel — I will not leave you orphans, but will come to you (John 14:15-21) or Jn 17:1-11a.

LIGHT OF BELIEF. Every believer in this world must become a spark of light.
— Blessed Pope John XXIII

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the tradition of the Church, not necessarily in your own life’s timeline, confirmation is the midpoint of Christian initiation, standing between font and table. Full initiation is completed when a confirmed person shares in the Eucharist. Centuries ago, this first sharing in the eucharistic assembly was marked by a first sharing in the Prayer of the Faithful. This prayer raises up the needs of the church and human community, the concerns of the faithful assembled, as they prepare to lift up the world to the Father’s love. So a person could not participate in the prayer until they were anointed with the “Oil of Thanksgiving.” Next, the newly baptized presented their gifts at the altar, a sure sign of their investment a new way of life. Until the sixth century, these people normally drank a mixture of milk and honey as a kind of pre-Communion. They were hungry, of course, since they were baptized hungry after long fasting, but this beautiful symbol of the promised land revealed them as God’s chosen, heirs to the promise. Although the “milk shake” disappeared centuries ago, we still see the vigor of this new life whenever adults are initiated at Easter, and increasingly in confirmation ceremonies that are attentive to this meaning.

“Thank you for those serving and who have served in the military that protect this country of ours. Thank you for those men and women in our military services who were willing to give their lives and who gave their lives to fight to keep this country free.”

Memorial Day
SANTACRUZAN 2014

St. Augustine Church will be holding Santacruzan 2014 on May 31, 2014. Its main purpose is for community catechesis, community building and finally to raise funds for the renovation of our Church’s Sanctuary. Santacruzan 2014 will attempt to capture the true essence of each character of this religious-historical pageant. For instance, the real Queen Helena or Reyna Elena was nearing her eighties, and her son Emperor Constantine, was in his fifties when they searched for the Holy Cross. We therefore have candidates from various age groups to represent the biblical women of the Old and New Testaments and the native women of the Philippines. Crowning of the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary will occur at 4:25 PM. Procession and pageantry immediately follows the 4:30 PM Mass.

What is a “Santacruzan”?
“Santacruzan” is a religious-historical pageant held in the Philippines during the month of May. It depicts the finding of the Holy Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ by the mother of the very powerful Emperor, Constantine the Great, who ended the persecution of Christians.

The festivity commemorates the search of the Holy Cross by Queen Helena (Reina Elena) and her son, the newly converted emperor. After finding the Holy Cross in Jerusalem, authenticated by a miracle of healing attributed to it, it was brought back to Rome. The search was marked with a joyful celebration of thanksgiving.

What is the “Flores de Mayo”?
This is a religious festival in honor of Mary, the Mother of the Son of God, Jesus Christ. The Feast is marked with the offering of flowers by sagalas (shepherd girls). The “Mayflower” offering may refer to the whole flower festival celebrated in the month of May in honor of Virgin Mary.

This custom and celebration started after the proclamation of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception in 1854. Introduced by the Spanish conquerors, this religious tradition is more than 100 years old and lives even more in Europe and America. The tradition is religiously celebrated preceded by the nine days of prayer, a novena, in honor of the Holy Cross and coupled with the Flores de Mayo.

CONGRATULATIONS and THANK YOU

The clergy and parish staff of St. Augustine Parish extend their congratulatory exultation to all the sagalas for Santacruzan 2014. By their exemplary efforts and faithfulness to this community, an exhilarating campaign resulted in a surprising financial contribution.

Thank you so much for all your generosity and love for this parish: the Santacruzan 2014 Sagalas, the outgoing Santacruzan 2012 Sagalas, the Santacruzan Committee, and all of you who have shared your resources for this religious-historical pageantry of Santacruzan.

SANTACRUZAN REHEARSALS
